

REGULATING DRUG DRIVING TO PROTECT ALL ROAD USERS

Thursday 15 November 2018
Radisson Blu Sobieski Warsaw
Plac Zawiszy 1, 02-025 Warsaw, Poland

Moderation: Ilona Buttler (Instytut Transportu Samochodowego)

09:00 Registration

09:30 Welcome
Antonio Avenoso, Executive Director, European Transport Safety Council (ETSC)
Director Marcin Ślęzak, Motor Transport Institute

Part I: Tackling Drug-Driving in Poland

9:50 The Road Safety Situation in Poland
Anna Zielińska, Motor Transport Institute

10:00 Psychoactive substances in the population and in road traffic - legal issues and new problems
Tomasz Białas, Director of Department for Designer Drugs Surveillance, Chief Sanitary Inspector

Psychoactive substances in the population and in road traffic - the scale of the phenomenon and preventive countermeasures
Piotr Jabłoński, Director of National Bureau for Drug Prevention

10:35 Drug Driving Enforcement
Radosław Kobryś, Police Headquarters

10:50 Questions & Answers

11:00 Coffee break – Media interviews

Part II: Current Progress and Case Studies in EU

- 11:30 Preventing Drug Driving in Europe
Frank Mütze, European Transport Safety Council (ETSC)
- 11:45 Implementing New Drug Driving Legislation in the UK
Kim Wolff, Professor of Addiction Science, King's College London
- 12:05 Drug Driving in France
Charles Mercier-Guyon, Medical Advisor of La Prevention Routiere
- 12:25 Trends in the Field of Drug Testing
Verena Zimmermann, Securetec
- 12:45 Part III: Interdisciplinary Panel discussion on Tackling Drug-Driving in Poland

Moderation: Ilona Buttler, ITS
- 13:30 Conclusion
Antonio Avenoso, ETSC
Ilona Buttler, ITS
- Buffet Lunch – Media interviews*

Simultaneous Translation (Polish <-> English) is available at the conference.
ETSC is grateful to Securetec for the financial support for this event.