

European Transport Safety Lecture 2014

Keeping science at the heart of road safety policy-making

Thursday 27 November 2014, 17:00

Catalan Traffic Service – Servei Català de Trànsit, Generalitat de Catalunya
Carrer Diputació, 355 - 08009 Barcelona

The European Transport Safety Council (ETSC) has the pleasure of inviting you to its annual debate event, featuring a keynote speech by María Seguí Gómez, Director General at the Spanish Directorate General for Transport (DGT).

Joan Josep Isern Aranda, Director of the Catalan Traffic Service (SCT) and Julio Laria del Vals, Director of the Road Safety Institute of the Fundación MAPFRE, will respond to the presentation and a debate with the audience will follow.

AGENDA

Moderator: Ole Thorson Jorgensen, President of P(A)T– A(P)AT (Association for the Prevention of Traffic Accidents)

17:00 Registration and coffee

17:30 Welcome and introductions

- Herman De Croo, ETSC President

17:45 Presentation of the Catalan Traffic Service – Road safety in Catalonia

- Joan Josep Isern Aranda, Director of the Catalan Traffic Service

18:00 Keynote: Keeping science at the heart of road safety policy-making

María Seguí Gómez, Director General, Spanish Traffic Safety Administration
(DGT)

18:45 Responses from:

- Julio Laria del Vals, Director of the Road Safety Institute of the MAPFRE Foundation

19:15 Debate with the audience

19:30 Conclusions: Ramón Espadaler, Home Affairs Advisor

Interpretation Catalan / English / Spanish will be provided.

Participation is free but seats are limited. Register online at:
www.etsc.eu

For more information, please contact: Ilyas Daoud, Project Manager, ETSC
Ilyas.Daoud@etsc.eu, +32 2 230 41 06

European Transport Safety Council

media representatives and is open to all those interested. The 2014 edition will be organised in cooperation with the Catalan

Traffic Service (SCT), MOVING and the Fundación MAPFRE.